THE SYSTEM

Clothes for Young Gentlemen

Don't suit everybody. We know it better than anyone. But, they will suit any young fellow who is not of the "dilly dally" sort.

If you're keen—if you want beautifully shaped shoulders—if you want lapels that roll back softly and expose a waisty vest that buttons high and really fits you—if you like trousers that fit snugly at the waist and "stay up"—if you like fabrics which are woven expressly for young fellows, you'll "go crazy" over our clothes.

If we hadn't been cocksure that a certain percentage of young fellows would wear our kind of clothes, we wouldn't have purchased such decisive modes for Spring. Look and you'll decide to buy. Come soon.

In an effort to dissolve the United States Steel Corporation, Uncle Sam is introducing some sensational testimony. Not the least interesting is the evidence that many of the Trust's records have been destroyed since the suit was started. Jacob M. Dickinson, ex-Secretary of War, is appearing for the government, assisted by Henry B. Colton. Henry P. Brown is the special master appointed by the United States Circuit Court to take testimony in the suit. Mr. R. V. Lindabury is chief counsel for the Steel Corporation.
